

ANIMAL STUDIES FRIDAY BROWN BAG SEMINAR SCHEDULE
Spring 2013

NOTE: THE LOCATION HAS CHANGED TO 221 NATURAL RESOURCES

JANUARY

January's Animal Studies Friday Brown Bag Seminar will be held on January 25 (12:00-1:00, 221 Natural Resources) and will feature Jill Fritz, Michigan State Director for The Humane Society of the United States. Jill will talk about the Humane Society's Wolf Protection Campaign.

FEBRUARY

February's Animal Studies Friday Brown Bag Seminar will be held on February 8 (12:00-1:00, 221 Natural Resources) and will feature Pat Lederle, Research Section Supervisor of the Wildlife Division of the Michigan Department of Natural Resources. Pat will talk about managing wolves in Michigan.

MARCH

March's Animal Studies Friday Brown Bag Seminar will be held on March 29 (12:00-1:00, 221 Natural Resources) and will feature Carl Taylor, Professor, Senior Fellow in University Outreach and Engagement and MSU Extension Specialist. Carl will talk about the intersecting problems of dog fighting, gangs and violence.

APRIL

April's Animal Studies Friday Brown Bag Seminar will be held on April 26 (12:00-1:00, 221 Natural Resources) and will feature Page Yaxley, DVM and founder of MSU's Hospice Veterinary Care Program and co-facilitator of the Companion Animal Loss Support Group. Page will talk about the vet school's hospice service which manages compassionate and palliative hospice care to animal companions with terminal illness.